

KLOVE is the only radio station of it's kind that I am able to get. I am a supporter of the radio station because I believe that provides an alternative source of family "friendly", christian entertainment. Its important that this station is available in my community.